

Surf Travel & Ecotours for Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation in threatened Coastal Communities

- Allows travelers to book ecotours and surf travel services directly from community members in coastal areas threatened by climate change
- Provides new employment opportunities for community members whose traditional livelihoods are at risk due to changes in weather patterns, rising sea level and the appearance of novel crop blights
- Funds local organizations that are providing regionally appropriate climate change mitigation measures

